

ADVOCACY BINGO

High Five! Choose five things you can do to build a relationship with your legislator this session.

Send an intro and thank you for serving email.	Send a card with pictures from your school and invite them to visit your district.	Invite your legislator to a school event.	Sign up for the legislator's newsletter on their website	Email thanking your legislator for increased funding last session. Tell what you did with the funds.
Attend a local event (watch the newsletter) and introduce yourself.	Email thanking your legislator for increased funding last session. Tell what you did with the funds.	Ask for a meeting when the legislator is in town in their local office.	Follow your legislator on social media like Twitter or Instagram.	Sign up for the legislator's newsletter on their website
Invite your legislator to a school event.	Fill out their legislative survey on their website.	Sign up for the legislator's newsletter on their website	Attend a local event (watch the newsletter) and introduce yourself.	Send a card showing pictures of how your district is using ARP funding.
Follow your legislator on social media like Twitter or Instagram.	Attend a local event (watch the newsletter) and introduce yourself.	Email thanking your legislator for increased funding last session. Tell what you did with the funds.	Send a card with pictures from your school and invite them to visit your district.	Send an intro and thank you for serving email.
Ask for a meeting when the legislator is in town in their local office.	Send an intro and thank you for serving email.	Send a card showing pictures of how your district is using ARP funding.	Email thanking your legislator for increased funding last session. Tell what you did with the funds.	Attend a local event (watch the newsletter) and introduce yourself.

Once you make an ADVOCACY BINGO, send a picture to your round table rep to get entered into a drawing at the spring conference.