

Adenike Aderiye

Adenike began teaching in Texas in 2005 as a Science and Social Studies teacher. She then taught students with exceptional needs from 2006-2012 and developed and implemented an after school program titled (ELIT) Educated Ladies in Training for young at-risk girls targeting self Esteem. In 2012 she began teaching at College Park Elementary in Indianapolis where she served as a teacher liaison for the 21st Century Scholars Program, RTI Core Team Member and as a Homebound and ESY Instructor. In 2013 she served as the Exceptional Learners Department Chair at Lincoln Middle School where she served as Public Agency Representative and assisted the Special Education Director in administrative duties. Also during this time she served as a parent liaison for special education services, implemented co-teaching, and developed and implemented the RTI process at the secondary level. She most recently served as the Department Chair for Exceptional Learners at Pike High School and assisted the directors in administrative duties. She was a 2015 ElevatEd Presenter "The Power of 2:Co-teaching". Adenike also restructured the students with Emotional Disabilities program and Managed the summer ESY program. Adenike was recommended for the ICASE Presidential Scholarship by the Director of Exceptional Learners MSD Pike Township, Megan Ahlers and Pike High School Principal Troy Inman.